MUST-SEE EPISODE!

Secrets and lies

Gail's stress levels soar as she tries to cover up Andy's ID theft...

Gail is still reeling from her wedding day from Hell, when she came face-to-face with Michael's estranged son, Gavin, and learnt lying Andy had stolen his identity! Afraid the shock truth about his son could actually kill Michael, who has a heart condition, Gail paid Gavin £2,500 to leave Weatherfield. But in a shock twist, Gavin then died in a drink-driving accident, meaning the secret has gone to the grave with him. Or has it?

This week, Gail insists Andy must continue to pretend to be Gavin for the sake of Michael's health. But when Michael walks in on Gail hastily trying to cover their tracks on the computer at the bistro, will he learn the terrible truth?

'The identity cover-up can't stay a secret forever,' says Les Dennis, who plays Michael.

'I would imagine Michael will be deeply hurt if he finds out Gail has let him believe a perfect stranger is his son!'

Gail is then plunged into further family crisis when her son, David, goes into battle with Max's real dad, Callum, over custody. Then, just when things can't get any more hectic for the gran, her feisty teenage granddaughter, Bethany, unexpectedly flies in from Milan without her mum!

Teenage tearaway

Instead of dropping into Gail's to say hello, however, underage Bethany heads straight for the Rovers – where she cheekily tricks unsuspecting Andy into buying her booze!

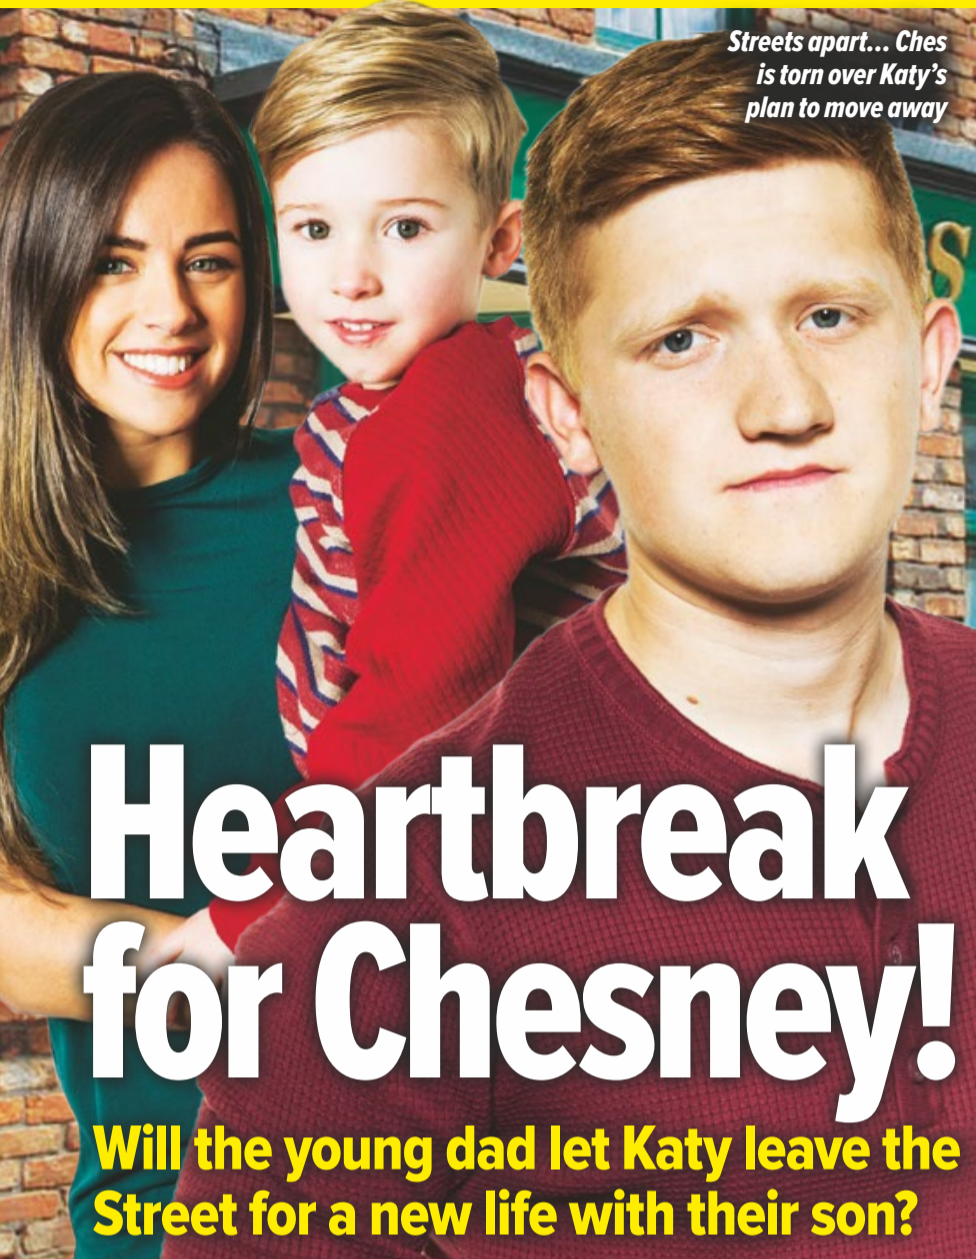

How will Gail react when she catches Bethany drinking in the pub, and finds out she's run away from home? And will Michael learn the truth? ■

Streets apart... Ches is torn over Katy's plan to move away

Heartbreak for Chesney!

Will the young dad let Katy leave the Street for a new life with their son?

Words: Simon Timbick Photos: BBC, Channel 5, ITV, Lime Pictures

While her mum, Linda, prepares to fly back to Portugal, Katy is heartbroken as she decides she can't go with her. Katy knows she must reluctantly stay in Weatherfield so Chesney can see his son.

Chesney, however, is still annoyed his ex was even thinking about leaving the country with Joseph.

'Katy is angry Chesney can't see how much of a better life Joseph could have in Portugal,' explains Georgia May Foote, who plays Katy. 'She gets upset because Chesney thinks Katy is just being selfish, but that's not the case at all.'

Gutted to see her dreams going down the drain, Katy gets drunk in the Rovers with bad boy former fling, Callum. When Chesney sees what a state Katy is in, however, he has a change of heart about letting her leave with Joseph...

Second thoughts?

'Katy's really shocked by it,' says Georgia. 'It knocks her sideways because she wasn't expecting Chesney to change his mind! She doesn't waste any time at all and books the flights immediately!'

When Chesney visits his girlfriend, Sinead, in hospital however, she's shocked he's prepared to let his son go, and begs him to reconsider.

With Katy about to head to the airport, will devoted dad Chesney decide he's made a mistake about Joseph and send Katy off to Portugal alone? ■

Shock confession!

MUST-SEE EPISODE!

The Carters are rocked by Stan's terrible news...

The Carter family have been slowly getting their lives back on track, now Linda's rapist, Dean, is out of the picture. However, with the fear Dean could be the father of Linda's unborn child hanging over them, she and partner Mick have left the drama of Albert Square behind them and gone on holiday. Little do they know, however, the Carters are about to be rocked yet again...

No sooner have Mick and Linda left than Mick's grandfather, Stan, who has terminal prostate cancer, collapses and loses the feeling in his legs!

Stan refuses to let any of his family travel in the ambulance with him when a squabble breaks out with his daughter, Shirley, over the money he lent Dean to start his hair salon, Blades.

At the hospital, the family are then hit by a double bombshell, when Stan reveals devastating news – and then announces he wants to go into a care home.

With Shirley refusing to pay back the money Stan now needs, and the arrival of busybody Aunt Babe failing to help matters, Stan's daughter, Tina, decides it's up to her to stop this latest crisis wrecking the family.

While Tina attempts to work her magic, Stan finally has something to smile about when his on/off ladyfriend, Cora, arrives at his bedside. After ruining his chances with Cora previously, lonely Stan seizes the moment and proposes! Will Cora accept and give Mick and Linda something to celebrate when they get home? ■

MUST-SEE EPISODE!

David kills Lachlan?

The furious shopkeeper wants revenge on Alicia's teenage attacker...

In denial...
Alicia is hounded
by livid Lachlan

Bubbly barmaid Alicia has become a shadow of her former self since obsessed teen Lachlan sexually assaulted her after her birthday drinks. Despite reporting the ordeal to the police, the case has been dropped – and lying Lachlan has convinced his family he and Alicia were in a secret relationship! The injustice of it all is eating away at Alicia and her loyal husband, David. 'Alicia wants Lachlan to be sorry and admit he was wrong, as once she has closure she can move on,' explains Natalie Anderson, who plays Alicia.

'But Lachlan's not willing to because he doesn't believe he's done anything wrong.' This week, Alicia and David's nightmare continues when Lachlan returns from holiday with his mum, Chrissie.

Terrified

Later, Lisa finds Lachlan hanging out with Belle and the protective mum publicly orders him to stay away from her daughter, leaving him mortified. Finding Alicia alone in the store, fuming Lachlan corners her... 'There's a part of Lachlan that did love Alicia, but she's shut him down and hurt him,' explains Natalie. 'She completely freaks out and starts throwing stuff at him!' It's the tipping point for David, too. Unable to contain his anger over his wife's awful situation any longer, he totally flips and, bundling Lachlan into his car, furious David then tears out of the village! Dragging Lachlan into an empty barn, David wants to punish the terrified teen... But how far is he prepared to go to get justice for his beloved Alicia? ■

Andy's meltdown!

The widower's odd behaviour scares Tracy...

Andy's friends and family have been really worrying about him since his wife Katie's shock death last month. After a suicide attempt, the grieving farmer has been boozing and he's started a whirlwind relationship with villager Tracy. Now, despite fierce opposition from friends and family, Andy's determined to show off his new lady. 'Andy's making a point of being tactile with Tracy in public,' says Kelvin Fletcher, who plays Andy. 'But really it's his way of blocking out the pain over Katie.' When amorous Andy insists Tracy comes to his daughter Sarah's school play, she senses things aren't right and is alarmed by Andy's possessive behaviour. Could his old anger issues be resurfacing? Tracy storms off leaving Andy dateless at the school, and his wake-up call continues when he clocks an old photo of him and Katie from years ago. Facing the painful reality of his situation, Andy realises he's in a mess and breaks down... Can he begin to build his life back up now he's reached rock bottom? ■

It's a knockout!

Ricky Wilson reveals what it's like for the coaches on The Voice UK as the knockout rounds get under way...

THE VOICE UK

Sat, Sun, times vary BBC1 Entertainment

Q What can we expect from this weekend's knockout rounds?

A I've got a team of eight I have to cut down to three [for the live shows next week], which is a massive cull – five have to go and they're all brilliant singers. This time, they get to choose their own song, which says a lot about who they are and how they want to portray themselves.

Q Talk us through your team of eight...

A I have Emmanuel Nwamadi, who's an amazing, passionate guy. Stevie McCrorie is the warrior. Hannah Symons was the first person I won out of a 'four-turner'. There's Autumn Sharif, Letitia George and Christina Matovu, and then I have my two 'steals': Olivia Lawson and Claudia Rose, both different singers and very young.

Q Do you think you've built a strong team?

A It's possibly the strongest. But when you've got so many strong singers, it makes it harder to decide who to take through to the live shows.

Q At the knockouts, each singer has to perform alongside all the others in their team. Does that add pressure?

A It's hard because you're competing with people you really like, but then that's what it's all about.

Q How difficult is it for you to have to let singers go at this stage?

A The lows are heart-wrenching. But the highs are exhilarating when you can give someone what they want.

Q This is your second series as a coach. How do you think you've adapted to the role?

A I'm trusting my instincts a lot more and not going for who I think I should go for but for who I want to go for. Sitting in the big red chair is still terrifying – but I wouldn't do the show if I didn't love it! ■

While grieving the death of his wife, Doris, Mr Grove's world fell apart anew last week when his close friend and colleague, Miss Mardle, revealed he wasn't the real father of Doris' baby son, Ernest. Unable to face bringing up another man's child, Mr Grove handed little Ernest over to Miss Mardle!

'Mr Grove was happy with Doris,' says ex-Spy star Tom Goodman-Hill, who plays Mr Grove. 'He had no idea baby Ernest wasn't his son.'

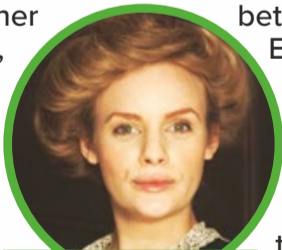

As Mr Grove returns to work at Selfridges, it's revealed that little Ernest is still in Miss Mardle's care. In fact, her tenant, George Towler, has been looking after him after quitting his job at Colleano's nightclub.

At the department store, Miss Mardle wants to talk to Mr Grove about Ernest's future welfare, but he's not interested. He's still furious with her for helping to arrange the secret meeting between Doris and Ernest's natural father, Billy.

With Miss Mardle unable to get through to Mr Grove, George tries. As they talk, George recalls what it was like growing up without a proper father and urges Mr Grove to reconsider his feelings towards Ernest.

George's words hit home as Mr Grove surprises Miss Mardle by turning up to take the baby home with him! Despite his change of heart about Ernest, however, will Mr Grove ever be able to forgive Miss Mardle for her actions? ■

Jonny fights for life!

Following a brutal incident in prison, the nurse returns to Holby as a patient...

After being arrested and charged with the murder of a patient last week, Holby nurse Jonny Maconie is on remand in prison awaiting bail.

'From the minute he's sent to prison, a whole new crazy adventure begins for Jonny,' says Michael Thomson, who plays the medic. 'From out of nowhere, Holby almost turns into a full-on prison movie!'

Jonny's sharing a cell with a young man, Khalid, who's clearly feeling intimidated by other prisoners but seems reluctant to tell Jonny why.

Danger

'Khalid latches on to Jonny and follows him everywhere because he's so scared,' says Michael.

Later, Jonny's delighted when Mo and Adele come to visit him in prison, but he keeps a watch on Khalid, who's still on edge. Then, when Jonny sees another inmate get up to attack Khalid, he immediately steps in to defend the boy, but Khalid is stabbed. As Jonny, Mo and Adele all try to stabilise him, Jonny realises he's been stabbed too and collapses!

As Jonny and Khalid are both rushed to Holby, Jonny finds himself back on Mesmerising... Hypnotist Keith Barry (right) sets the mood

A hypnotic new game show sees contestants put under the spell of hypnotist Keith Barry, who'll be making them think and do all sorts of wild and crazy things!

Five strangers attempt to work together to complete easy tasks for cash prizes of up to £25,000. There's a twist however – they're all hypnotised! So, challenges such as making a clay model, inflating balloons and serving dinner to some well-known chefs suddenly cause all sorts of confusion and chaos.

Meanwhile, it's host Phillip Schofield's job to keep a straight face when contestants hear the hypnotic triggers and start hiding under Neighbours turns 30!

Join Kylie, Jason and other cast members for the Aussie soap's big birthday celebrations...

Ramsay Street residents past and present pay tribute to Neighbours this week, as Australia's longest-running soap celebrates its 30th anniversary!

'A lot of effort has been put into creating something special,' promises Jackie Woodburne, who has played Susan for 20 years. 'It's a big milestone, so we want to make something of that.'

Aside from a fortnight of anniversary episodes, which include classic characters such as Harold (Ian Smith) and Madge (Anne Charleston), stars of the soap also share their memories in a 90-minute documentary, Neighbours 30th: The Stars Reunite.

The soap, set in the fictional Melbourne suburb of Erinsborough, was first shown in Australia on 18 March 1985. However, it was axed after less than a year due to poor ratings. Unexpectedly, a rival Dance of desire!

Ross and his former love, Elizabeth, cause a big stir at the local ball...

The romantic heart was ripped out of Ross Poldark last week when the soldier returned to Cornwall to discover his childhood sweetheart, Elizabeth, had got engaged to his cousin, Francis. Now married, Elizabeth is still torn over what she did to Ross while he was away at war... 'Fundamentally, Elizabeth is a nice, genuinely warm person,' explains Heida Reed, who plays her. 'She's very much a lady of her time, trapped in her own world. It's important for Elizabeth to know her place in society and be respected – it's why she went through with the marriage.'

Even though Ross (Aidan Turner) vowed to get over

A pack of liars!

What lies beneath... The showroom bares its secrets

A star-studded new drama lifts the lid on a group of ordinary workmates with some extraordinary secrets...

How well do we really know the people we work with? That's the question posed in the new six-part BBC drama Ordinary Lies, starting this week.

Hidden truths

Following the lives of workers at car dealership JS Motors, the series explores what happens when a simple lie spirals out of control. With each episode focusing on a different character's secret, lie or deception, it soon becomes clear that these colleagues don't really know each other at all.

'There's a big difference between a friend and the bloke you sit next to at work every day. These people are often not really your friends, they're just people you see a lot,'

ORDINARY LIES Tuesday, 9.00pm BBC1 Drama

says comic Jason Manford, who plays car salesman Marty, whose story is told in the opening episode. 'The fact is, we don't know what's going on in people's lives.'

When Marty gets a final warning for being late from company boss, Mike (Max Beesley), he knows he's on thin ice. So, when another night of heavy drinking sees him oversleep, Marty's sure he'll be sacked. In a panicked attempt to save his job, he calls work and tells the mother of all porkies – that his wife, Katrina, has died.

'We've all been in that situation where we're running late for work and we're trying to come up with an excuse, but Marty takes things to a ridiculous level,' says Jason. 'Lying that his wife has died is horrendous, but Marty's not a bad person, he's just made a bad decision.'

Broken marriage

Meanwhile, Marty's perceived loss brings back painful memories for head of sales, Beth (Jo Joyner), whose husband went missing the year before. Beth then confides in Mike, whose own marriage is in tatters...

'Everyone has their own secrets and things they wouldn't want their colleagues to know about,' says Jason. 'This drama gives people a taste of what could happen if their secrets were ever to come to light.'

Who's living a lie?

BETH (Jo Joyner)
With her husband still missing, Beth is living in limbo and turns to Mike for support – but can they keep things strictly professional?

MIKE (Max Beesley)
The boss of JS Motors, Mike's marriage is foundering, but his attention is drawn to head of sales Beth rather than his wife...

TRACY (Michelle Keegan)
Receptionist Tracy longs to escape the humdrum 9 to 5 and live a life of luxury. But what extreme lengths will she go to in order to fulfil her dream?

GRACE (Rebecca Callard)
Head of online sales, Grace, is there for Marty in his hour of need. Could they become more than just friends?

MARTY (Jason Manford)
Salesman Marty dupes everyone when he claims his wife has died. Will his colleagues realise they've been lied to?

KATHY (Sally Lindsay)
Mike's PA, Kathy, loves a good gossip, but doesn't discuss her private life. Would she be the talk of the office if people knew the truth?

PETE (Mackenzie Crook)
Salesman Pete was once a heavy gambler. Now will desperate times see him relapse into his addiction?

'The person dressed up is helpless, while the person guiding them also suffers. Naturally they end up winding each other up!' says Kate, who co-hosts the show with Irish comedian Jason Byrne.

Kate admits the show is very different to what she's used to presenting!

'When Wild Things was first proposed to me, I thought it was a joke! It wasn't until I was sent a taster clip that I realised it was serious,' laughs Kate. 'I really wanted to do the show, although it could be the end of my career!'

A VERY new PERSONAL SERVICE!

Meet the rich women who spend thousands hiring male escorts...

Several years ago, glamour model Jodie Marsh felt so miserable being single that she trawled the internet looking for a male escort. The only thing that stopped her going through with it was the fact she couldn't find one attractive enough.

Now, in the first of a new series, Jodie meets women who openly admit to regularly using male escorts – some spending up to $25,000 for a week-long booking.

'It's still a big stigma for women to pay for sex,' explains Jodie. 'But I came very close to it when I couldn't get a man. I was really lonely and hadn't had sex for months.'

In this week's Jodie Marsh On... Women Who Pay For Sex, Jodie, who finds British women reluctant to admit to using escorts, travels to America. There, she meets several 40-something women who regularly hire gigolos, including single mum Laura,

'Nick's taught me how to have fun again,' says Laura, who's spent $50,000 on his services. 'He's become my friend.

I'd still be drinking myself to sleep if it wasn't for him.'

However, with Laura admitting she fell for Nick right from the start, Jodie questions if women can have sex with an escort without getting emotionally involved.

'It's harder for women to have no-strings-attached sex, so you have to stay strong mentally if you hire an escort,' says Jodie. 'It's a great service if done the right way. But I'm not sure I wouldn't become addicted to the fantasy.' ■

MY FAMILY SUICIDE HELL

Angela Samata explores why some people take their own lives – as her partner did

LIFE AFTER SUICIDE

Tue, 10.45pm (Scot, 11.40pm)
BBC1 Factual

Angela Samata was an ordinary mum-of-two from Birkenhead. Then, one evening 11 years ago, everything changed. She came home from work, having picked up her two sons – then aged three and 13 – to find her partner, Mark, had hanged himself in the hallway.

'I didn't see it coming. I'd spoken to Mark 15 minutes before he died,' recalls Angela. 'Behind me, I could hear the boys laughing. It was the most unreal, surreal situation.'

Since that day, Angela has learned how losing someone you love to suicide brings a totally different kind of grief from any other.

Secret despair

In a new BBC1 documentary, she explores why some people choose to take their own lives, how those left behind try to come to terms with that loss, and why suicide is so rarely talked about, even though it's the biggest killer of men under 50 in Britain. Four out of five people who take their own lives are male.

In the documentary, she meets others in her position, including actor David Robb, who plays Dr Clarkson in Downton Abbey. His wife, actress Briony McRoberts, killed herself at a tube station near Speaking about her loss... Angela struggled with anorexia.

Angela also meets Jacqui Page, whose husband, Rob, killed himself in 1990. Seven years ago, her son Simon also took his own life. Angela's worst fear is one of her boys doing the same.

'I understand now there was a part of Mark that couldn't share how he was feeling with us,' says Angela. 'I always want those lines of communication to be open for us as a family.'

'The thing that runs through the film for me is the importance of talking about how you're feeling, not only after you've been bereaved, but also before you hit crisis point, because that's what Mark didn't do. He didn't have the conversation we wish he'd had.' ■

'I can't believe that, in around an hour, we'll be a family of five!' adds Miraz.

The two-part series also follows Steph and Chris, who spent seven years trying to start a family. Now Steph is expecting triplets, but they are facing a worrying time as one of them doesn't appear to be growing properly.

Terrifying

'When you tell people you're expecting triplets, they say, "Oh that's amazing". It is, but it's also terrifying,' says Steph. 'Some of the practicalities make you think, "Oh my God, how I am going to do that?"'

We also meet Tracey and Paul, who face a life-or-death decision when two of their triplets develop twin-to-twin transfusion syndrome, where one is not receiving enough nutrients from the placenta.

All three couples know they can't take anything for granted until their babies are born.

'All we can do is cross our fingers,' says Chris. 'I've waited so long to be a parent and now it's finally happening.' ■

We also meet the customers who are desperate to know what goes into KFC's secret recipe, invented by the company's founder, Colonel Sanders, in the 1930s!

'Even I don't know what the recipe is,' says Ali, who works as head of new product development for KFC in the UK. 'I've heard that only two people know the recipe, and no one knows who they are, but they're not allowed to travel on the same plane together!' ■

COMEDY

Bridesmaids ★★★★★
9.00pm-11.30pm C4

A very funny chick flick, starring Kristen Wiig as singleton Annie, who goes into a neurotic tailspin when she agrees to be maid of honour at the wedding of her best friend (Maya Rudolph). The farcical incidents pile up as she vies with Rose Byrne's rich bridesmaid. Chris O'Dowd, as a cute traffic cop, and Matt Lucas, as Annie's flatmate, are great in support. (2011; Cert 15).

DANCE DRAMA

C4 Premiere

Step Up 4: Miami Heat ★★★
2.25pm-4.30pm C4

Film number four has Ryan Guzman's poor-boy street dancer falling for Kathryn McCormick's rich girl, wannabe hoofer. But his friends and her dad disapprove. And there are more complications when her property tycoon father sets out to tear down Guzman's neighbourhood. The unlikely but inventive dance stunts fizz with energy – and make the movie. THRILLER

Sinister ★★★
9.00pm-11.10pm Film4

A true-crime writer (Ethan Hawke) moves his wife and kids into the home of a missing girl whose family was found hanging from a tree outside the house. But then he finds a box full of snuff films and realises he's placed his own family in mortal danger. With its spooky apparitions, things that go crash in the night and a terrifying soundtrack, this is a full-on scary movie. (2012; Cert 15).

HORROR

The Wolfman ★★★
11.10pm-1.15am Film4

Benicio Del Toro is a troubled Yorkshire nobleman, called back home by his almost-sister-in-law (Emily Blunt) to solve the mystery of his brother's death in the woods. He's reunited with his father (Anthony Hopkins) and falls for Blunt, but things are not what they seem... This old-style horror film is effectively eerie and is worth watching for its good cast. THRILLER

ITV2 Premiere

The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo ★★★★★
10.00pm-1.15am ITV2

This Hollywood remake of writer Stieg Larsson's crime thriller stars Rooney Mara, as punk-Goth computer hacker Lisbeth Salander, and Daniel Craig, as crusading journalist Mikael Blomkvist, who hires her to help him investigate a 40-year-old missing-person's case. Both stars nail their roles and director David Fincher delivers a tense, bleak and gritty thriller that won't disappoint fans of the book. Christopher Plummer co-stars as the tycoon desperate to find out what happened to his teenage niece. (2011; Cert 18).

DRAMA

Charlotte Gray ★★★★★
6.40pm-9.00pm Film4

During World War Two, a nurse (Cate Blanchett) falls in love with an RAF pilot and, when he goes missing over France, she's recruited as a spy to find him. The corny plot confounds every expectation to deliver an absorbing drama – and Blanchett's dealings with Billy Crudup's Resistance leader and the local Nazi collaborators are anything but predictable. SCI-FI ACTION

Star Trek ★★★★★
9.00pm-11.35pm E4

Action-packed and entertaining, this prequel is all about character, backstory and Star Trek lore and legend, which is just as well since the plot – with Eric Bana as a deranged baddie – is baffling. Chris Pine and Zachary Quinto excel as the young Kirk and Spock, while Karl Urban as Bones, Simon Pegg as Scotty and Zoë Saldana as Uhura also make their mark. (2009; Cert 12).

Rocket to the Moon ★★

6.15am-8.10am BBC2

A so-so farce in which Burl Ives' circus owner wants to send a dwarf to the moon. (1967; Cert U).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

North West Frontier ★★★

1.25pm-3.30pm BBC2

A likeable yarn in which a British officer (Kenneth More) has to get a steam train – and a young prince – through 300 miles of rebel-held territory in 1905 India. (1959; Cert U).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

Jumper ★★★

7.15pm-9.00pm Film4

After discovering he has the ability to teleport anywhere, Hayden Christensen looks up the girl (Rachel Bilson) of his dreams and whisks her off to Rome. There he meets another Jumper kid (Jamie Bell), but finds that Samuel L Jackson's secret organisation has sworn to kill their kind. Flimsy it may be, but this nifty sci-fi yarn does entertain. (2008; Cert 12).

Bridesmaids ★★★

9.00pm-11.30pm C4

See page 29 for review.

Mercury Rising ★★★

10.40pm-12.40am ITV (not STV)

A jaded FBI agent (Bruce Willis) stumbles upon a government plot to murder an autistic boy (Miko Hughes), because he's cracked a top-secret code. It's never credible and Alec Baldwin,

Working the graveyard shift... Dougray needs Kate's help in ENIGMA as the bureaucrat gunning for Hughes, gets some really cheesy lines. Still, Willis and Hughes give performances that make up for the film's shortcomings. (1998; Cert 15).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

Watchmen ★★★★★

10.40pm-1.50am Film4

Brilliant visuals and great effects characterise this great adaptation of the celebrated graphic novel. The plot – set in an alternate 1985 that's on the brink of nuclear war – is convoluted, but an excellent ensemble cast that includes Jackie Earle Haley, Malin Akerman, Matthew Goode and Billy Crudup makes it worthy viewing. (2009; Cert 18).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

Enigma ★★★★★

10.45pm-12.40am BBC2

11.45pm-1.40am BBC2 Wales

The cracking of the German Enigma codes during World War Two is the background to this classy spy thriller. It stars Dougray Scott as a decoder at the top-secret Bletchley Park intelligence centre, who enlists Kate Winslet's cipher clerk to help find his missing former sweetheart, Saffron Burrows. (2001; Cert 15).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

True Lies ★★★★★

11.30pm-2.00am C4

Arnold Schwarzenegger fires on all cylinders as a secret agent taking on a gang of terrorists. His wife (Jamie Lee Curtis) thinks he's a salesman, which cues the film's strong line in comedy. Add some spectacular stunts and effects – notably a chase involving a motorbike and a horse – and the result is a fine star vehicle. (1994; Cert 15).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

Puppet on a Chain ★★

12.40am-2.15am BBC2 (not Wales)

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

Surf's Up ★★★★★

3.50pm-5.25pm Channel 5

Jeff Bridges deploys his mellow tones as the voice of legendary penguin surfer Big Z and gives this cartoon its witty heart. Shia LaBeouf is a contender in their surfing competition. (2007; Cert PG).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

A Bug's Life ★★★★★

5.25pm-7.10pm Channel 5

A magical animation in which brave ant Flik (voiced by Dave Foley) is fed up with evil grasshopper Hopper (Kevin Spacey) and his gang stealing his colony's food. So he seeks help and thinks he's found a group of warriors when he comes across a bug circus. (1998; Cert U).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

Lara Croft: Tomb Raider ★★★★★

7.15pm-9.00pm Channel 5

Angelina Jolie brings an impressive athletic energy to the title role as the posh English heroine who never merely walks when she can run, jump and blast away in mid-air with a gun in each hand. The globe-trotting plot features an old clock that can control time, a secret ancient civilisation and statues that come to life. (2001; Cert 12).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

Killer Elite ★★

9.00pm-11.20pm Channel 5

Jason Statham clashes with Clive Owen and Robert De Niro in this routine thriller. Statham's ex-mercenary tries to save partner De Niro from an oil sheikh seeking to avenge his sons, who were killed by Owen's ex-SAS team. Star charisma and good stunts make up for the sloppy plot. (2011; Cert 15).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

BBC4 PREMIERE

Untouchable ★★★★★

10.00pm-11.45pm BBC4

Lazy stereotyping aside, this is an enjoyable culture-clash comedy about the friendship between a white, disabled millionaire (François Cluzet) and his black carer (Omar Sy). (2011; Cert 15; subtitled).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

Burke and Hare ★★★

11.05pm-12.30am BBC2 (not NI)

Simon Pegg and Andy Serkis entertain as William Burke and William Hare, making a killing in 1820s Edinburgh by providing cadavers for the doctor (Tom Wilkinson) experimenting on the human body. A well-done comedy chiller. (2010; Cert 15).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

Edge of Tomorrow ★★★★★

From Friday 20th March (8.00pm-10.00pm) SM Premiere

This terrific sci-fi stars Tom Cruise as a cowardly PR man-turned-reluctant army grunt having to relive the same day fighting invading alien bugs. Aided by Emily Blunt's veteran fighter, Cruise is compelling as his character transforms from shirking wimp to skilled soldier – and the film also switches from dark comedy to regular action movie. (2014; Cert 12).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

The Longest Week ★★

From Friday 20th March (10.00pm-11.30pm) SM Premiere

Jason Bateman plays a wealthy idler who, thrown out of his parents' swanky Manhattan hotel, sponges off his friend (Billy Crudup) and falls for Olivia Wilde's debutante model. Bateman has charm and he saves this irritating comedy from total disaster. (2014; Cert 15).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

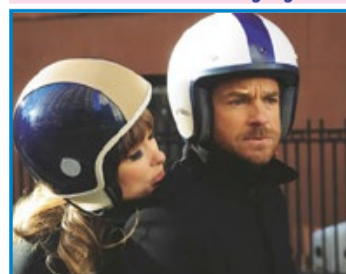

Kill the Irishman ★★

From Friday 20th March (11.30pm-1.20am) SM Premiere

Ray Stevenson is full of it as the larger-than-life

Irish-American mobster Danny Greene, survivor of multiple assassination attempts during the Mafia wars in 1970s Cleveland. A sentimental biopic that deftly re-creates the era. (2011; Cert 18).

The Twilight Saga: Eclipse ★★★

11.05pm-1.15am C4

So Bella (Kristen Stewart) loves the vampire Edward (Robert Pattinson), but the werewolf Jacob (Taylor Lautner) keeps turning up shirtless to confuse her. The stars are more relaxed and confident in this third film, while Brit director David Slade brings on the horror and doomy romance to liven up the story when the wolves help to take on vengeful vamp Victoria (Bryce Dallas Howard). (2010; Cert 12).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

Revolver ★

11.20pm-1.35am Channel 5

Director Guy Ritchie's pretentious thriller stars Jason Statham as a gambler with just three days to live but determined to get revenge by fleeing his arch enemy (Ray Liotta). (2005; Cert 15).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

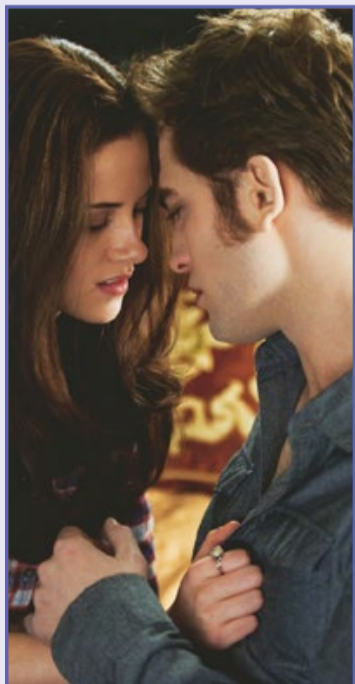

Lone Star ★★★

12.30am-2.40am BBC2

1.25am-3.35am BBC2 Wales

In 1957 Texas, a corrupt sheriff (Kris Kristofferson) is supposedly run out of town by his colleague (Matthew McConaughey). Decades later, Chris Cooper's sheriff is trying to solve the mystery of a skull and a tin star found in the desert... The talk-driven plot is sometimes forced but, overall, this is a tense, intelligent and expertly acted Western. (1996; Cert 15).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

Outbreak ★★★★★

10.50pm-1.15am Channel 5

Dustin Hoffman is on top form as a US Army doctor, who must stop the spread of a deadly virus and prevent Donald Sutherland's evil general from blasting a town off the face of the Earth. It's an unlikely tale, but this star-studded thriller is tense and exciting. (1995; Cert 15).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

Junkhearts ★★

12.15am-1.55am BBC1

12.05am Scot/12.30am NI/12.30am Wales

Eddie Marsan is a drunk, traumatised ex-soldier living in an east London council block. But when he takes in a gobby, teenage runaway (Candese Reid) things start looking up – until her drug-pushing boyfriend (Tom Sturridge) turns up. In a different London, the life of Romola Garai's executive is going off the rails but, by the time the two stories converge, the film loses its credibility. The acting is brilliant, though. (2011; Cert 15).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

FILM4 PREMIERE

Beastly ★★

7.15pm-9.00pm Film4

The Beauty and the Beast fairy tale gets a glossy makeover with teen stars Vanessa Hudgens and Alex Pettyfer in the title roles. He's a jerk, so Mary-Kate Olsen's witch casts a spell to make him ugly... A slick film with enough charm to keep you watching. (2011; Cert 12).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

Piranha ★★★

10.20pm-12.00m't 50

There's lots of violence and sex in this hilarious horror comedy. Elisabeth Shue plays a small-town sheriff who has to, first, fend off over-sexed holidaying teens and then an attack of killer piranha fish. (2010; Cert 18).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

The Wolfman ★★

11.10pm-1.15am Film4

See page 29 for review.

Carry On Up the Jungle ★★★

11.40pm-1.10am ITV (not STV, UTV)

A funny send-up of Tarzan. Terry Scott wears a loincloth, Frankie Howerd plays an ornithologist, Charles Hawtrey is the leader of a tribe of female warriors and there's a cheeky gorilla in there, too. (1970; Cert PG).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

BBC1 PREMIERE

The Double ★★

11.45pm-1.20am BBC1

12.10am BBC1 NI, Wales/12.40am BBC1 Scot

Richard Gere's retired CIA agent reluctantly joins an FBI rookie (Topher Grace) in the hunt for a legendary Soviet assassin known as Cassius, who may have resurfaced and killed a US senator. This lacklustre thriller also stars Martin Sheen as the CIA chief. Despite its two big surprises, this is so poorly written and directed that it's never tense. (2011; Cert 12).

18 March

Us two... Harrison and Josh team up for HOLLYWOOD HOMICIDE

Dead Lines ★★

3.15pm-5.00pm Channel 5

Jeri Ryan plays a fashion designer being targeted by a killer in this dull but slick thriller. (TVM; 2010; Cert PG).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

Gulliver's Travels ★★★

8.00pm-9.45pm E4

A good star vehicle for Jack Black, who plays the latter-day Gulliver as a boastful New York mailroom clerk, who wangles a travel writing trip to the Bermuda Triangle and then ends up on an island inhabited by a race of tiny people. He sets about impressing them with his tall tales, repels an enemy armada and shakes up the stuffy royal family: king Billy Connolly, queen Catherine Tate and princess Emily Blunt. (2010; Cert PG).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

The King's Speech ★★★★★

9.00pm-11.20pm Film4

It's the 1930s and future King George VI (Colin Firth) suffers from a debilitating stutter. Then his wife (Helena Bonham Carter) takes him to see eccentric Aussie speech therapist Lionel Logue (Geoffrey Rush). Making the most of the perfect script, Firth is as touching as he is amusing, Rush is a scene-stealer and Bonham Carter is warm and funny. (2010; Cert 12).

Hollywood Homicide ★★★

11.15pm-1.10am BBC1

11.40pm BBC1 NI/12.10am BBC1 Scot, Wales

Harrison Ford and Josh Hartnett play contrasting cops investigating a multiple murder case. Ford, whose character is three times divorced, in debt and under close scrutiny by Bruce Greenwood's Internal Affairs department, adds a neurotic edge to his performance. And there are laughs when both cops take second jobs, Ford as an estate agent and Hartnett as a yoga teacher. (2003; Cert 12).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

Control ★★★★★

12.55am-3.00am C4

Sam Riley is spot-on as Ian Curtis, the lead singer of the rock band Joy Division, who committed suicide in 1980. Samantha Morton is also effective as his wife in this stylish, black-and-white biopic. (2007; Cert 15).

Sex○○○ Violence○○○ Language○○○

Dragonball Evolution ★★

3.00am-4.25am C4

This pacy and flashy yarn disappoints with its messy plot and below par martial arts and effects, but Justin Chatwin gives a likeable performance as a high school teen on a quest to collect seven magical orbs to give him boundless power. James Marsters is the villain and Chow Yun-Fat the martial arts master. (2009; Cert PG).

Once Upon a Time in Mexico ★★★★★
9.00pm-11.00pm 5

Larger-than-life characters, violent shootouts and a totally cranky turn from Johnny Depp are the highlights of director Robert Rodriguez's third addition to his El Mariachi-Desperado series. Antonio Banderas plays the legendary guitar-playing gunslinger El Mariachi, Depp is a CIA man on his trail and Willem Dafoe is a mad, bad drug baron with revolution in mind. (2003; Cert 15).

The Taking of Pelham 123 ★★★★★
9.00pm-11.10pm Film4

Director Tony Scott delivers a slick and flashy remake of the classic 1974 thriller, in which a well-organised gang hijacks a New York subway car. The acting is ideal, with John Travolta as the key villain. John Turturro is spot-on as the police negotiator, Denzel Washington solid as a demoted controller and James Gandolfini nervy as the mayor. (2009; Cert 15).

God Bless America ★★★
10.50pm-12.55am Film4

A sacked, divorced middle-aged man (Joel Murray) and a thrill-seeking schoolgirl (Tara Lynne Barr) go on a killing spree targeting people who annoy them, from irritating reality TV stars to rude moviegoers. This blistering satire doesn't always hit the mark, but it's certainly provocative. (2011; Cert 15).

Sex○○○ Violence●●● Language●●○

Passchendaele ★★★★★
11.35pm-1.20am BBC2

Set during World War One's Battle of Passchendaele, this drama pulls no punches in showing the horror of life on the frontline. But writer, director and star Paul Gross' main story, a shell-shocked Canadian soldier's romance with his nurse, is less effective. (2008; Cert 15).

Prizes are as stated. There is no cash alternative. No responsibility will be accepted for postal entries lost, delayed or damaged, or for any phone network problems. Prizes are allocated to correct entries drawn at random from postal and phone entries. Winners notified by post (or as otherwise specified) after the closing date. Answers published in four weeks (11-17 April 2015 issue). For the full list of prizewinners or rules, send an sae, stating what you require, to: What's On TV Prizewinner List Week 12, PO Box 502, Leicester LE94 0AB. Entrants agree to take part in future publicity. Entry implies acceptance of rules. While every effort will be made to supply the prize as specified, prizes provided by third parties cannot be guaranteed. No purchase is necessary. Plain paper entries will be accepted, but only if set out like the coupon on p101. No entries can be returned. What's On TV reserves the right to offer an alternative prize of equal or greater value.

Survival of the fittest

Having watched the first episode of ITV's Bear Grylls: Mission Survive, I am hooked! Pampered celebrities have been plunged into the rainforest, where they face challenges in order to survive. I have been impressed with Emilia Fox and her cousin, Laurence, as they face each obstacle without drama. I will be glued to this series, which will no doubt feature plenty of surprises along the way.

Dawn Wedajo, London

Bring back Gaby!

I stopped watching ITV's Lorraine as I found Lorraine Kelly irritating and often quite patronising to her guests. How refreshing to see Gaby Roslin replace her for a week recently. She was down to earth and entertaining and we didn't have to put up with too much of Lorraine's cleavage on show, which is totally inappropriate at breakfast time. Well done, Gaby!

Cheryl Brazier, Birmingham

Welcome back...
Gaby Roslin

A killer patient

I want to say how brilliant I thought the recent episode of BBC1's Casualty was, when the A&E Team had to deal with an injured serial child killer – and also one of the mothers of her victims. Marcia Warren, the actress who played child murderer Olive Russell, was excellent. She was so evil and distorted, the way she taunted the mother who wanted to know where her daughter was buried to Shocks and surprises!

Wow! So Bobby Beale was Lucy's killer in EastEnders? I never saw that coming in a million years! I was gripped by every moment of BBC1's EastEnders Live Week, and was carefully watching for clues hoping I could crack the case myself before the big reveal. But I was miles off, convinced it was Denise or Jane who were guilty! Well done to all the cast and crew – the twists and turns kept me on the edge of my seat. I can't wait to see what happens next, especially now that Kathy Beale has returned from the dead!

Lynda Strong, Torfaen

Whodunit...?
Shock killer Bobby have closure. The way the staff dealt with the situation – bringing out all sorts of emotions and reactions – was first class.

Sue Eves, Essex

What a con!

Why do TV channels revisit past shows and try to make us think they are new? The latest was C4's Location, Location, Location, which has basically just been repeats.

I think it is very sneaky just to repackage old episodes and label them as new, simply because they have added an extra five minutes of new footage.

Trev Snowley,
Plymouth

Time to change gear!

BBC2's Top Gear should be renamed Low Gear, as this motoring series has gone downhill. It is now more about self-indulgent presenters Jeremy Clarkson, Richard Hammond and James May. I hope it returns to the old format, otherwise, surely it's time to send Top Gear to the scrap yard?
